State Research Project

You will research your state to create a travel brochure. Advertise all the great things about your state. Be as creative and adventurous as you want.

In this project, you will be

- Gather information from books, databases such as PebbleGo Next and America the Beautiful, and other websites.
- Take note of title, author, publisher, date and page numbers of sources you use. You will use Diigo to organize your favorite websites.
- Fill in the information on your graphic organizer
- Use that information to write paragraphs for your travel brochure
- Include a photo or picture for each element.
- Choose a notable recipe that represents your state
- Present to the class on State Fair Day
